

NORTH END WATERFRONT .COM

News & Views for Boston's North End & Waterfront Community

Save the Harbor / Save the Bay Art Exhibition Opening Event

by RobynR on Wednesday, April 17, 2019

Join Robyn Reed and Save the Harbor/Save the Bay on Thursday April 25 from 5:30-8:30pm for the second art exhibition opening at their Boston Harbor Pop-Up Gallery at 226 Causeway Street.

The exhibit will include neon sculptures by SIYA, video pieces and interactive drawing opportunities by David Burr, photographs of the Boston Harbor Islands by Don Feeney, and a historical photography exhibition of Cuttillo Park provided by the Friends of Cuttillo Park group.

Robyn Reed's always expanding environmental art piece "Changing Course" will also be installed. Music will be performed by Justice McDaniel.

The pop-up gallery is located at 226 Causeway Street, right next to Title Boxing Club, at the corner of North Washington Street. One block from the North Station T stop.

BOSTON HARBOR POP-UP GALLERY
226 Causeway St.

APRIL EVENTS

Exhibition Opening
Thu. April 25 5:30 - 8:00 pm

Siya
Neon Sculptures

David Burr
Video & Drawing

Don Feeney
Photography

Friends of Cuttillo Park
Historical Photograph Series

ArtWeek Interactive Art Project:
Paint a Water Bottle Fish!
Sat. April 27 12:00 - 4:00 pm
Sun. April 28 12:00 - 4:00 pm