

Save the Harbor's Free "Life's A Beach" Events and "Share The Harbor" Tours

Save the Harbor/Save the Bay is hosting a boatload of free harbor island excursions this summer and 7 free "Life's a Beach" festivals featuring trapeze artists, acrobats, jugglers, and performing pirates on the region's public beaches from Nahant to Nantasket.

Save the Harbor's free "Life's a Beach" festivals began last weekend in Quincy, and will be held weekly in Winthrop, East Boston, South Boston, Lynn, Dorchester and Hull.

You can find out more about the festivals and other free Better Beaches Program events at <http://blog.savetheharbor.org/2018/06/free-events-and-programs.html>.

Their free "Share the Harbor" cruises are open to the public and depart each Monday at 10am on Bay State Cruise Company's flagship Provincetown II from the dock at the World Trade Center in Boston's Seaport.