Members of the West End Boys and Girls Club, in Allston, recently were among more than 650 people who joined Save the Harbor/Save the Bay for three free Marine Mammal Safaris on Boston Harbor on April 22.

Participants came from across the city, the region and the world to search for harbor seals and harbor porpoises as well as cormorants, eiders and other sea birds.

Save the Harbor/Save the Bay is a nonprofit, public interest harbor advocacy organization whose mission is to restore and protect Boston Harbor, Massachusetts Bay and the marine environment.
